E. P. BRYAN, Agent.

Madam Rumor has set the 11th of October as the wedding day of a young lady on the South Side.

Only one week more in which to pay your city taxes if you want to vote at the next city election.

It is at last known definitely that the Commissioners selected the Valley Mills property as the site for the new Government building.

Mr. George B. Thompson and Miss Lula Forbes were married at the residence of the bride's parents in this city, on Tuesday afternoon, by Rev. J. M. Lewis.

As we have had the warm weather in the middle of September predicted by Vennor we are next to have the cold weather the first of October which he also predicts.

Mr. Jerry Lee had his life insured in the American Mutual Benefit Association for two thousand dollars, which his widow will receive in the next thirty or sixty days.

Rev. Dr. Weaver, of Louisville, has been preaching to very large congregations at the Baptist Church in this city this week. There have been four additions to the church.

Mrs. A. E. Stephens has purchased from Gen. John Rodman the lot on Todd street, between the property of Mr. J. L. Sneed and Mr. Ed. Choat, and has begun the erection of a double house upon it.

Prof. T. M. Turner has leased the large residence of Col. Orlando Brown, on the corner of Wilkinson and Wapping streets, for three years, and the Dudley Institute will be removed to it the first of December.

Mr. D. M. Woodson purchased, on Monday, from Judge L. Ford three acres of land on the Owenton pike, adjoining the old toll-gate property, about a mile and a half from the city, for which he paid $125 per acre. Mr. Woodson will shortly begin the erection of a residence upon it.

Dr. Samuel Ayres, of Danville, has bought out Mr. B. F. Meek in the watch and jewelry business and will shortly open a full stock of goods at Mr. Meek's old stand. Dr. Ayres is very highly spoken of by all who know him, and we are glad to welcome him to our city.

Elder George Darsie has preached every night this week at Hardinsville. He will return to the city and conduct the service at the Christian Church to-morrow morning, but there will be no preaching at night, as he will return to Hardinsville to fill his appointment there, as he expects to continue the meeting all next week.

There have been four attempts to burglarize the confectionery of Mr. L. Weitzel in the last three months. The baker, who sleeps in the back part of the building, was awakened by a noise at one of the windows Saturday night, and securing a pistol, he crept to the spot and found three men attempting to get in. He attempted to shoot one of them but his pistol snapped, and the men ran off. He failed to recognize any of them.

A comet was seen in this city Monday in close proximity to the sun, and caused quite a stir. It was plainly visible to the naked eye and everybody was out taking a look at it and running the risk of putting their eyes out. It does not seem to have been observed in many places in this part of the country but was seen in Colorado and Kansas. It was first discovered in this city by a colored washerwoman.

Thousands have used Kendall's Spavin Cure for rheumatism after all other remedies had failed, and have experienced instant relief.

Look out for the grand fall opening at the Arcade.

The City of Frankfort came up yesterday with a full cargo of freight.

The Arcade will be closed until six o'clock this afternoon, being Hebrew Atonelement.

Mr. Geo. Whitehouse killed eight didappers with a shot-gun, on the river Wednesday.

Messrs. Richardson Bros., Henry Gresham, Woerner, Fields, and Hughes all sell Mrs. S. J. Bohannon's bread on the South Side.

Attention is called to the advertisement of M. H. P. Williams, jr., in another column. Read it, and when you want anything good to eat—oysters, fish, vegetables, or the like—go to the old Cheap John corner and see him.

Mr. Chas. Vogler has purchased from Mr. A. J. Kendall a lot on the corner of Third and Logan streets, and it is stipulated in the contract that he is to erect a two-story brick residence upon it within six months.

Mr. W. F. Cowgill, of Fayette county, and Miss Geneva Paine, of Preble county, Ohio, were married at the residence of Mr. S. W. Paine, near this city, on Wednesday, September 20th, Rev. John W. Pugh officiating.

Death of Mr. Nelson Alley.

At three o'clock Thursday morning Mr. Nelson Alley, after having lived seventy years in this city, breathed his last, at peace with all men, and claimed by all classes as a friend. A man without enemies and of whom all spoke well, he has gone from earth to the great hereafter to render an account of a long and well spent life. There are residents of the city who are older than he was, but none have lived in this city so long.

He was born on the 10th of October 1800, near Covington, in Kenton county, and came to this city when twelve years of age. He learned the saddler's trade under the late James Shannon, and afterwards went to stock driving with the late Col. David Thomson, father of our County Judge, making a number of trips to North Carolina with horses. In company with Mr. Albert G. Cammack he afterwards made numerous trips to New Orleans on flat boats, it requiring nine weeks to make the trip, for which they received twenty-five dollars. When the horse railroad was established between this city and Lexington, he opened a confectionery and an eating-house near the Old Depot, on the hill above the city, but afterwards entered into a partnership in the grocery business, on Market street, with his brother-in-law, Mr. William Greenup, under the firm name of Greenup & Alley, which was continued for thirty-three years. In 1868 the partnership was dissolved, when he went into the livery business on Main street and continued it until his death. He leaves a wife and three children, who together with the entire community, mourn his loss. Another landmark has fallen and we shall not see his like again.

Mr. V. Berberich has received a full line of fall and winter goods. Call and examine them.

Go and select the goods for a nice suit of clothes at Berberich's and get him to make them up for you as only he can.

Death of Jerry Lee.

After lingering until the ninth day after receiving his wound, and exciting strong hopes of his ultimate recovery, Jerry Lee grew suddenly worse Monday morning and died at twenty-five minutes to eleven that night. A post-mortem examination was held the next morning which revealed the fact that the ball had passed through several of the bowels and his death was inevitable. His funeral took place Wednesday morning from the Episcopal Church and was largely attended. The funeral procession was an exceedingly long one, being headed by the police of the city, followed by the City Council, Esoteric Lodge of Masons, and Capital Lodge of Odd Fellows. The fire bell was tolled as the procession moved through the streets, and the Engine House and Major Hall were draped in mourning. He was buried with the honors of Masonry and Odd Fellowship.

Mr. Lee spent much of his childhood and early life in this city, but he never made it his permanent home until about 1867, when he became a clerk in the grocery of Mr. L. Tobin. A short time after he went into the grocery business in the old Odd Fellows' building on Market street, but closed out in about a year and accepted a position upon the police force, in which employment he has continued ever since except for a short time, having served two years as City Marshal. He was a generous, kind hearted man, fond of and true to his friends, brave, but quick to resent an affront. He leaves a wife and three children, two daughters and one son, to mourn his loss.

FROM COL. L. T. FOSTER.

Youngstown, Ohio, May 16th, 1880. Dr. R. J. Kendall & Co., Gentlemen:—I had a very valuable Hambleton colt that I prized very highly. He had a large bone spavin on one joint and a small one on the other which made him very lame. I had him under the charge of two veterinary surgeons who failed to cure him. I was one day reading the advertisement of Kendall's Spavin Cure in the Chicago Express. I determined at once to try it and got our druggists here to send for it, they ordered three bottles; I took them all and thought I would give them a thorough trial. I used it according to directions and the fourth day the colt ceased to be lame and the lumps have disappeared. I used but one bottle and the colt's limbs are as free from lumps and as smooth as any horse in the state. He is entirely cured. The cure was so remarkable that I let two of my neighbors have the remaining two bottles, who are now using it. Very Respectfully, L. T. FOSTER.
